INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Shareholder of Astoria Capital Markets, Inc.:

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Astoria Capital Markets, Inc. (the "Company") as of December 31, 2002. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statement referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial condition of Astoria Capital Markets, Inc. as of December 31, 2002, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the Unites States of America.

ASTORIA CAPITAL MARKETS, INC. NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT FOR THE YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2002

NOTE 1 - SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Astoria Capital Markets, Inc. (the "Company") is a registered broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. (the "NASD"). The Company operates an electronic order management system to facilitate order management of exchange listed and over-the-counter securities for two broker-dealers and their customers.

In the normal course of its business, the Company enters into financial transactions where the risk of potential loss due to changes in market (market risk) or failure of the other party to the transaction to perform (credit risk) exceeds the amounts recorded for the transaction.

The Company's policy is to continuously monitor its exposure to market and counterparty risk through the use of a variety of financial, position and credit exposure reporting and control procedures. In addition, the Company has a policy of reviewing the customer and/or other counterparty with which it conducts business.

The C ompany has a greed to indemnify its clearing broker for losses that the clearing broker may sustain from the customer accounts introduced by the Company. As of December 31, 2002, there were no customer accounts with debit balances that presented any material risk of loss.

The Company considers all highly liquid instruments purchased with a maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

NOTE 2 - INCOME TAXES

The Company has elected to be taxed under Subchapter S of the Internal Revenue Code and similar provisions of New York State. Accordingly, no provision for federal and state corporate income taxes is required. The shareholder of the Company is liable for the taxes on his share of the Company's income or loss.

The Company is subject to the New York State Franchise and New York City General Corporation taxes that, at a minimum, impose the tax based on capital. The Company has established a provision for such taxes.

NOTE 3 - NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENT

As a registered broker-dealer, the Company is subject to the Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1 of the SEC which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital, as defined and that aggregate indebtedness, as defined, does not exceed fifteen times net capital. At December 31, 2002, the Company had net capital of $743,524 that exceeded their requirements by $738,524.

NOTE 4 - RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Company also reimburses Sutton Consulting Group, Inc. for its share of telephone usage and other sundry services. The Company subleases its office space from the same related party, subject to the related party's master lease. The Company pays $480 in rent to the related party.
